Give it all you got.

Story Mill tells Higgie, "I can't believe you said that!"

The moment the students stepped onto the grounds of Chowan, it was the beginning of independence for the students. Life as a Chowanian became the start of a new experience for everyone.

Soon they will enter into the realm of the college world. The year held promises for new teachers, new friends, and new dreams all of which became reality the first day back to school.

Everyone knew it would be a struggle to meet new faces and join with the crowd. After all the tension was broken in the dorm, everything was fine. Joining in on the extracurricular activities Chowan held made the new students feel at ease with each other. The finishing touches were added to a year of renovations.

Making a move

As the saying goes, "Sooner or later, everyone must leave the nest," and for about 600 freshman students, and a new college president, it meant packing up and leaving home to start a new way of life at Chowan. Joining this group was about 400 sophomores and returning students who came back for another year of college study and activity, and to add more fond memories of college life.

Sophomores were eager to assist freshmen by reassuring them and helping to adjust to college life.

When asked how they felt when they arrived on campus, the freshmen offered a variety of responses:

Luisa Urea: "After driving 17 hours, I was glad to get here.

Phil Smoak: "It was cool."

Wendi Koob: "It was exciting to know that you would begin to venture out and be on your own."

Will Rice: "At first I was homesick and nervous to begin the challenge of new classes awaiting me."

Allison Crouch: "I found it hard to adjust until I began meeting new friends."

Preston "Pooh" Gist: "I felt like a wave in an ocean of new people and was very anxious to experience life at Chowan."

But all-in-all, Heather Smith summed the experience best when she said, "Everyone came from a variety of backgrounds and then as the first few weeks of school passed, everyone blended in together like one big family."

Heather's comments, indeed, reflect how the students, faculty and staff form unity as Chowan begins another year of service in education.

Playing the field . . .

Philip says "Oh no, they captured you, too!"

At first glance, Squirrel Park is a dull, lifeless place in the middle of the campus which is lined with ancient oak, cedar, and beech trees. But on warm afternoons after classes have ended for the day, Squirrel Park comes alive with activity as students meet to relax and unwind.

Students bring their blankets, books and radios to either sit with friends and share the latest news of their day or maybe just to watch the activities going on in the park. On almost every afternoon, with weather permitting, games of football, playing catch, frisbee throwing, and soccer take place, and many of the spectators enjoy the warm sunshine and fresh air. And even on the very rainy days, there is activity in Squirrel Park when students enjoy the "mud puddles" and other accumulations of rain water as swimming pools.

So even through Squirrel Park seems like nothing very special, it is one of the favorite places on campus for students.

Sand Box Dreams

Sometimes I wish I could desert all my problems . . . worries fade away, burden weights lifted, and responsibilities removed . . . and I am a child. A carefree little child playing in the sandbox, where conflicts are resolved, prejudices non-existent, and where there are no doubts and no fears. My only decision is what I shall build and how my sand castle will be when completed.

I am content. Innocence is my world; love is my expression, and laughter my favorite friend soon.

The castle crumbles and sand escapes, being carried away by the breeze, and with it the childhood lets me come back to the secure boundaries of my sandbox again . . . sometimes.

PROUDLY WE DEDICATE . . .

The 1990 Chowanoka to a man who has spent his life in the search for truth and in an attempt to live the truth and expound the truth, as he understands it. At the same time, he is able to take the most complex issues from philosophy and biblical theology, and put them in terms that are understandable to freshman and sophomore students. He is one who enjoys every aspect of college teaching, and the opportunities that teaching provides to direct and challenge young minds.

He is one who truly believes in youth and its high potential, and consequently he has been able to maintain on a personal level a youthful spirit of intellectual curiosity. He genuinely cares for students, and is always available to give that extra bit of assistance and that word of encouragement that can mean the difference between success and failure. He is deeply concerned when his students experience failure, and he rejoices in their successes.

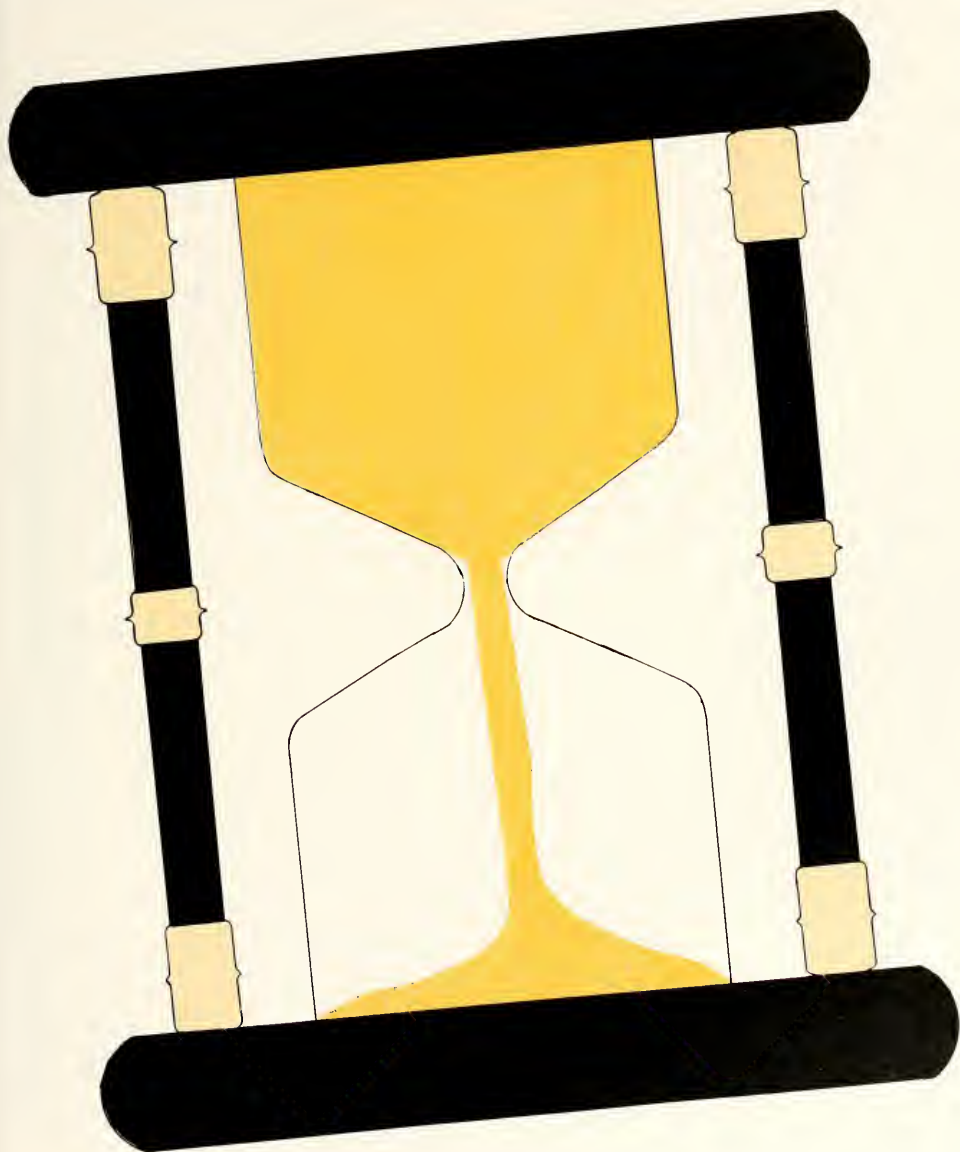

He is a fighter. He stands firm on those issues in which he believes. He opposes those forces that would ravage the mind, the soul, or the body.

In his personal life, he provides an example of what he teaches. He is gentle and caring in his dealings with everyone. He teaches and practices the principle that love conquers all and that the truth can make us free. In the highest and best sense of the term, he is a Christian humanist, a Christian gentleman.

For these and many other reasons, we, the students of Chowan College, take delight in dedicating the 1990 edition of the CHOWANOKA to one who has so effectively been our teacher, our mentor, and our friend,

Dr. Earl H. Parker

Arrive Alive! Don't Drink and Drive

The Chowan chapter of Students Against Drunk Driving (SADD) followed tradition and again staged a SADD Rally in Lakeside Student Center during the fall semester. The event was attended by the majority of Chowan students and many surrounding high schools based students in for the informative program.

The day's events included a welcome address by Dr. Jerry Jackson, president of Chowan College, and his introduction of the Honorable Jim Gardner, Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina. Following the address, attending students had an opportunity to view the many displays in the Lakeside Student Center and to speak with visiting officials. Throughout the day, mini-workshops were conducted, which included such topics as "Living with the Consequences" (Tony Gregory); "Scared Stiff" (N.C. Highway Patrol); "Think Smart" (Prisoners from Fountain); and "Story of an Addict" (Samuel Young).

After the lunch period, a demonstration was given of "Jaws For Life" by the Murfreesboro Rescue Squad, which was followed by a demonstration search of a vehicle by the narcotics dog, under the sponsorship of the local police department.

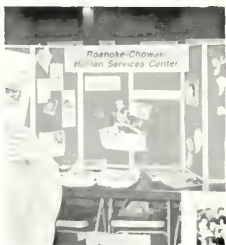

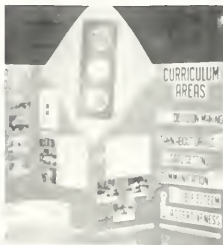

The 1989 SADD Rally was sponsored by Miss Hope Adams and Mrs. Linda Tripp, with the assistance of SADD chapter members Arlandra Moore, Jennifer Harvey, Jeff Patrick, David Beck, Cathy Dean, Steve Seabury, Eric Eisloeffel, Andrew Newsome, Derek Williams, Frances Brook, Carl Campbell, Dewey Edwards, Gale Graham, Tina Hewlett, Forrest Logan, Krystal McDowell, Linda Moore, Jenny Mowry, Fances Rudd, Tina Saunders, Stacey Curry, Valerie Vick, Queen Williams, Annette Hayes, Susan Lambert, Kim Smith, Delia Trooper, Zack Wilson, Holis Brentley, Patti Britt, Beth Droste, Gena Hughes, Mark McCollough, Connolly Pannet, Shannon Worley, Amy Doubleday, Holli Furman, Tina Hughes, Bill Malick, and Patrick Raiford.

A way of support

"You better watch out"
"You better not cry"
"You better be good"
"I'm telling you why"

Parents are arriving today!

Parents have a day that is just for the parents and students both to share what college life is all about.

Parents are given a chance to enjoy campus life with their young adults. Parents may want to take in a game of "pin ball" at the Student Center or take in a football game to tie up the day. Parents can see the rooms and meet our friends and teachers.

After a long day of fun and excitement, parents enjoy dining with their children in the Thomas Cafeteria.

Parents just don't know what to think of their children living on their own in the dormitories.

Parents get to view a victory Brave game while visiting the campus during Parent's Day.

Goodbyes are hard to say as parents are getting ready to leave.

"Dad, you can't beat me at this game." "Oh, yeah?"

Day Students

Students that look forward to coming to Chowan every morning!

The Chowan College Day Students Organization is composed of members classified as commuting students.

International Students

International students are an important part of the Chowan College experience. There are presently 55 international students on campus from countries such as Japan, Thailand, India, Kenya, Jordan, Chile, Hong Kong, Kuwait, Malaysia, Indonesia, the Netherlands, and the Bahamas. These students major in a variety of programs such as fine arts, liberal arts, printing technology, photography, science, math, music, pre-engineering, business administration, computer programming and applications, physical education and athletic training. As can be expected, international students lend to the campus a cosmopolitan atmosphere not readily seen on small campuses.

The adviser to international students is D. H. Nicholson, Registrar to the college. He is a member of the National Association for Foreign Student Affairs and also keeps up with the Immigration and Naturalization Service regulations governing international students at colleges and universities in the United States. Mr. Nicholson says that the staff and faculty of Chowan College want the international students to have a secure and successful stay on campus. He states further: "We all know that international students are important for Chowan College, and fully appreciate the unique contributions each of them makes to this community. We value learning about their cultures as they value learning about ours."

The 1989-90 International Student Organization at Chowan College includes the following students: Wai-on Ma, Hong Kong; Paula Higgs, the Bahamas; Charlotte Pitt, the Bahamas; Melodie Russell, the Bahamas; Jorge Gonzalez, Chile; Chak Yan Tong, Hong Kong; Soichi Akachi, Japan; Yoshitake Chikaraishi, Japan; Junko Fujisawa, Japan; Yumiko Haramaki, Japan; Mika Hashimoto, Japan; Michiko Hatta, Japan; Keiko Hirasawa, Japan; Magumi Honkoshi, Japan; Tsuyoshi Ikeshita, Japan; Fumuhiro Imai, Japan; Horoaki Ishikawa, Japan; Yuko Ishikawa, Japan; Yukari Ito, Japan; Masato Ito, Japan; Yuka Kamiyama, Japan; Masayo Kaneko, Japan; Yuko Kato, Japan; Sato Kazuhiro, Japan; Kyoko Kikuno, Japan; Noriko Komiya, Japan; Keisuke Matsumoto, Japan; Takaki Matsuoka, Japan; Shin Montake, Japan; Isamu Murakoshi, Japan; Tamotsu Nagasake, Japan; Chikako Oguri, Japan; Hiromi Sakai, Japan; Daisuke Sawa, Japan; Yasuyoshi Sekita, Japan; Akihito Shiimura, Japan; Yuko Shimoda, Japan; Atsuko Shimowada, Japan; Yayoi Takeda, Japan; Yukiko Tanaka, Japan; Naoya Tsuruoka, Japan; Chieko Ukita, Japan; Mariko Umeuchi, Japan; Manabu Wada, Japan; Osamu Wada, Japan; Shigemitsu Yamaura, Japan; Chikayo Yanakura, Japan; Ashraf Khayri, Kuwait; Ramesh Kumar, Malaysia; Paitoon Taechavacerasin, Thailand; Elias Thomas, Indonesia; Janerose Kinyanjui, Kenya; David Towett, Kenya; Marcus DeMaaijer, the Netherlands; Geert DeSutter, the Netherlands; Rupal Desai, India.

Academic Life

Academics

Each professor at Chowan is unique and has his or her own way of presenting material. Some show strong personalities and style while others are more conservative. Each and every member of the faculty is a superb teacher and most seem to make each class a little more interesting. Two years, one year or even a single semester spent around the Chowan faculty has a lasting effect. The professors become your friends and you learn much more than your text book knowledge.

Stacey looks ready for class.

Makim which is the hardest teaching Chemistry to Timothy or getting him to learn it.

Philip and Angela, is Ore' a good Spanish tutor or is he putting us on?

Ore' is teaching one easier than two.

Mr. Bowman, is your 11:00 typography lab working up to their potential?

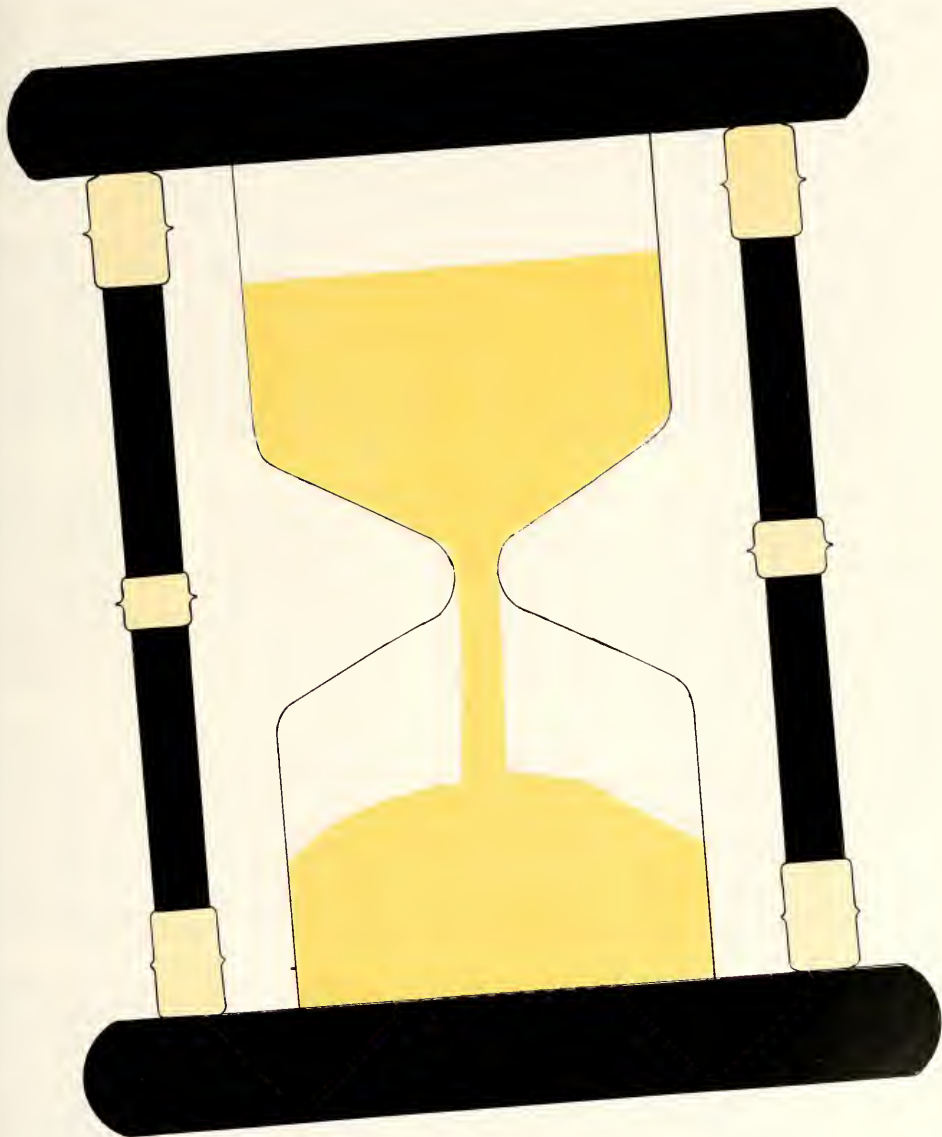

Mike, is it easy to imitate Mr. Bowman or does it take skill?

Mr. Wallace, this is what your 1:00 Business Law Class does while you're gone.

The Admissions Staff

The staff of the Office of Admissions travels many, many miles each year visiting high schools throughout the east coast and, therefore, they are away from the campus much of the time. Most of the staff were visiting schools during the time the yearbook photographer was on campus and were unable to have photographs made for this publication. The yearbook staff regrets this, but extends gratitude to the Admissions Counselors for the valuable work they do for this institution.

Sports

Alvin Dorsey, below, breaks away from an opponent under the watchful eyes of a referee for a sprint toward a Chowan touchdown. Dorsey saw plenty of action with the Braves as the team posted another winning season.

Statistics

	Chowan	Op.
Points	254	222
1st Downs	161	131
Rushing Yds.	456	355
Passing Yds.	881	1371
Total Yds.	3027	2972
Plays	557	563
Punt Avg.	35.8	31.1

Eric Bates, No. 2, leaps toward another Chowan Touch-down.

Coach Garrison gives Jimmy Shropshire some last second advice.

The Braves defense stifles the opposition.

Eric Bates picks up BIG yards.

The BRAVES, SHOWING OFF!!

Eric Bates hurdles two defenders for the score.

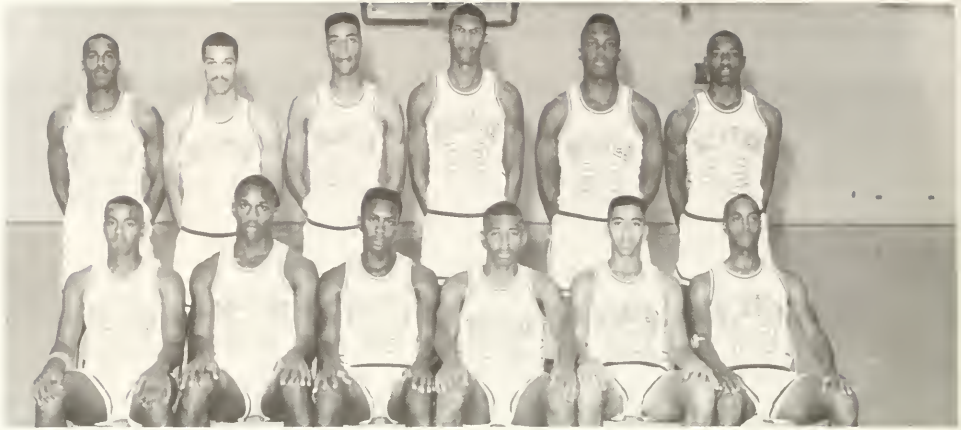

Kevin Johnson outruns the defense.

Dorsey runs to paydirt.

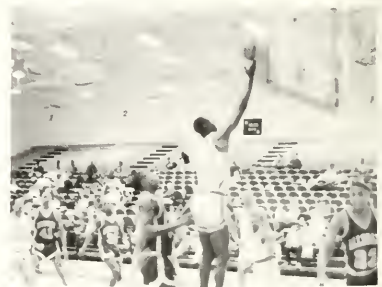

IN YOUR FACE!!

Coach briefs the Braves as to what needs to be done.

James Doggett lays one off the glass.

Ken Scroggins jumps center en route to yet another Chowan victory.

Coach Bob Burke spells relief V-I-C-T-O-R-Y.

Lady Braves 12th in the Nation!

The Lady Braves Volleyball team concluded their regular season the last weekend in October, by defeating strong opponents from Region X, and posting a record for the 1989 season with 28 victories and 11 defeats.

The following weekend, the squad traveled to Anderson, S. C., for the Region X tournament, and found themselves seeded as the No. 3 team for the annual contest. The Lady Braves put together two consecutive days of excellent volleyball play to capture the winner's championship trophy, after defeating the host team in the title game. Lady Braves selected to the All-Tournament team were Sue Taylor, Jennifer Towell, and Cartrina Williams. Williams was also named Most Valuable Player for the tournament. Additional post season honors went to Towell, Taylor and Williams as the trio was selected to the Region X team.

As Region X champions, the squad traveled to Bay-Minette, Alabama, in November to play Faulkner Junior College in the opening round of the NJCCA tournament. Coach Janet Collins' team served notice quickly that it would be a dominant squad, by capturing the District Nine Championship, and placing Fonda Lyons, Sue Taylor, and Cartrina Williams on the All-Tournament Team. Williams, for the second consecutive tournament, was named Most Valuable Player.

The next stop for the Lady Braves was Miami, Florida, site of the National Volleyball Tournament, and the team was seeded No. 4 in a tournament pool which consisted of the best sixteen teams in the nation. Facing the eventual national championship team in the opening round, the Lady Braves dropped their first three games, as well as their second round of matches to place them in the loser's bracket. The squad, however, defeated Hagerstown College in their final contests to end their tournament play with a 3-6 record which was their best showing ever in the National Tournament.

Overall, Chowan finished 35-13 for the season and tied for 12th in the nation, capping another excellent season for Janet Collins and her Lady Braves volleyball team.

Cartrina Williams, No. 12, co-captain of the 1989 team and a strong hitter and setter for the Lady Braves, makes a spike to help her team post another victory in the Helms Center.

Braves Have Consistent Season

Coach Jerry Hawkins began his 31st season as baseball coach. Hawkins, a native of Shelby, N.C., is a graduate of Gardner Webb and Western Carolina University. The 1989-90 baseball team at one point had to build on defense, but the hitting came. The season turned out unlike in years past, strong hitters throughout the lineup. The Brave pitching staff was strong and the constants were left-handed sophomore Jim Williamson and right-handed reliever, also a sophomore, Nash Long. The Braves also had good outings by Jimmy Hobbs. An off-season injury slowed down sophomore Scott Gray, who was one of the leading prospects of the 1988-89 season. Nevertheless Scott was a mainstay in the Brave lineup. The surprise improvement of sophomore Perry Carroway went a long way in stabilizing the Braves attack.

Scott Rawlins covers the gap between second and third.

“A Sweet Victory?”

The crowd yells wildly as the heroic wrestler assumes his stance. As he wrestles his opponent, the intensity leaves him and he is overtaken by the thrill of competition, after he forces his opponent's shoulders to the mat for a pin.

Most of the guys on the wrestling team agreed that wrestling gave them a great feeling of power and respect.

As a wrestler, you have to pay a price if you want to be a champion. During their season the wrestlers worked out every day. Some followed strict diets in order to keep their weight under control.

The Chowan wrestling team has had a very successful season this year. The team finished with a record of 17-0-2.

The team became the 1989 Newport News Apprentice tournament Champions, marking the first time Chowan has won this prestigious tournament in 10 years. Longwood duals wasn't too far behind taking 1st place in that also.

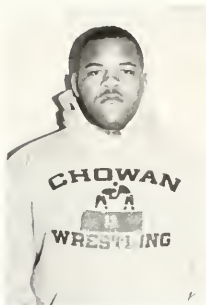

This year the Chowan Braves have proved themselves to be a nationally ranked team. The Braves have taken on and beaten some of the finest programs the East Coast has to offer. This season marked the first time ever that Chowan produced 4 champions at the Mid-Atlantic District Championships. The Big four-Stockton Williams, Joe Hawkins, John Reynolds, and Melvin Crosby all won individual titles at the districts. Thus enabling the Braves to win their first team title. Chowan finished with 84-50 to out-distance the 9 participating Junior College programs.

To cap off a Cinderella year, Chowan sent 7 wrestlers to Bismarck, North Dakota the site of the N.J.C.A.A. National tournament. Led by Heavyweight National Champion Melvin “Bull” Crosby the Braves garnered 5 All-Americans to finish 5th in the Nation with 63-25 points. Achieving All-American status were John Reynolds, Joe Hawkins, Tyrone Goins, Stockton Williams.

The total of 5 All-Americans and a National finish of 5th place has closed the chapter on the Chowan's Wrestling programs most successful season in 20 years existence.

This year's Mid-Atlantic Championship 1989-90 team records piled up some very impressive individual and team total status.

Melvin “Bull” Crosby is the 1989-90 N.J.C.A.A. National Hwt. Champion. His two year record was astonishing 60-8 with 33 of those wins coming this year to only one set back. He was also 1988-89 runner-up in the National tournament.

I was alone and bewildered in an unfamiliar place,
With no one to talk to and without a friendly face.
Scared, confused, and nervous
I tried to get along
But for some reason,
I felt I did not belong.

Soon the days got better;
the homesickness faded away.
The strangers turned into friends;
which I saw everyday.
So when I must leave you as many good friends sometimes part,
I leave you with fond memories

Another Impression

There is no way you can define College life in an easy way.

It's everything, if not more than you can expect it to be. Dorm rooms are to be the total opposite of your room at home. Leave the designer looks at home. Now its time for your real character, your real personality, the real you.

Your walls are covered with pictures of you and your college friends, stupid sayings cut out of magazines, and wild posters. Open your closet. Whose clothes are they, and where are mine?

In one section of your shoebox dorm room is your collection of pictures of home. Look at them. You want to cry. It seemed like ages ago that you were with them. The people that know the real you. The people you can be yourself with. They know your habits, ways and attitudes, but take you as you are, because they are your friends.

Where's that best friend that was always around and where's those blue eyes you trusted so much.

Love . . . What is it really?

So now it's time to let go of them and grasp now.

. . . Make the impression that will last!

Susan Wilkins

The Guys all gather around to cheer the basketball team on to victory.

We Can't go wrong

Last Request

Scott, "I've got your bike!"

The hardest thing in life is to say good-bye to someone you love. To that special friend you never wanted to see go. You want to say "can't you stay," but you know they have to go. They tell you that they don't want to go and leave you behind. But there is nothing they can do. You want to say "see ya soon" deep down inside you know the truth. It's going to be a while till the two of you cross paths again. Finally, the time comes when the two of you must part and go separate ways. You tell him you love him and you'll always be there if he needs anything. Now, the tears are forming in both our eyes. The last word that is said is "good-bye;" the tears are now falling from my cheek. You don't want to look back and see that person whom you shared secrets, thoughts, tears and laughs with go. To see that slip away through your fingers really hurts. Memories hurt. Oh, how they hurt. Weeks, months go by; you take a walk and for no reason you look up into the cloudless blue sky and wonder what he is doing right now. Some days the mailbox is empty; but there are days when you get letters and hear from that good friend, that left you to go on with the rest of his life. People ask "how can you keep a friendship being so far apart?" Why don't you just go on with the rest of your life without him? I tell them true friends are hard to come by and some people never find a true friend; one you can trust and tell anything to. Why should you give up a friend because of distance. Well, you should not give up any friend. Be patient, things will work out. Remember friends are forever.

People still ask the same questions over and over. Finally, I tell them I do it all for love.

Until we meet again . . .

Lori, Gina, Celeste, Marnie, Wendy—Columns sisters will be friends forever.

Every Chowanian will long remember his first day on the Chowan College campus and experienced apprehension, and the insecurity of not knowing where to go and what to do. The many new, strange faces also added to a feeling of intimidation.

However, as the semester got underway, we grew stronger, became more comfortable, and felt better prepared to reach our goals. We learned that with hard work and motivation, we could accomplish our objectives. We also realized that this is the time to take our place in a new generation, for we hold the future in our hands.

Our thoughts often wander back to familiar memories . . . Each of us has a special hour, a special laughter . . . those things formed to give memories to last a lifetime.

And now, we approach that time when we must say goodbye. We realize that the bonds formed at Chowan College will never be forgotten.

Now, we go our separate ways . . .
